

civils

ALDERSON, GORDON

First showed signs of life in 1944, and has been showing them ever since. Indoctrination began at Geelong Grammar and continued on arrival at M.U. in 1963.

He is renowned for his prowess at the end of an oar, in fact his stick work is unsurpassed'.

Dislikes: Small change.

Likes: Pound, pound, pound.

BALFE, PETER JOHN

Born in a lily patch 14/11/45. Failed 1st grade but hasn't failed since, entering M.U. from Scotch College in 1964. He joined S.C.I.I.A.E.S. and took extra curricula studies in Engineering, graduating B.I. in '66, under the sponsorship of the C.R.B. He has been M.U.E.S.C. President for 2 years.

Likes: 30 birds a year, fun and fitness.

Dislikes: Baldness and obesity.

Ambition: to be judged unfit for the Army.

Probable Fate: A fat, bald, soldier.

BLATT, FELIX

Popped out of an Alphorn in Zurich, 8/3/46, and sailed to Melbourne in 1949. He polsed around in assorted State Schools before going to Haileybury. Escaped to M.U. in 1964 under the guidance of the S.E.C. Felix lives with two women, but seems to cope quite well.

Ambition: To be rich enough to support a large family.

Likes: Pam, Rosalind, jazz, beer.

Dislikes: Jews, niggers, booze and racial prejudice.

Probable Fate: To have a large family anyway.

BREIT, RAINER

Born on 8th May, 1945 (V.E. day), and as a baby he was cast as Jesus in the passion play at Oberammergau. He was educated at Melbourne High where his adolescent frustrations were relieved by breast-stroking.

Favourite Pastimes: Cheryl, V.W. 1200 O.A. (Of-Abused), fly fishing, skiing and the horses. Plays a mean billiard ball and throws a lousy dart.

BROWN, G. C.

Born 1944 Melbourne. Moved to Brisbane for pre-graduate training. Deported back to Melbourne where he spent some years in the W.C. Moved to R.M.I.T.—tried Architecture birds with little success so switched to C.E. Arrived at M.U. 1966 celebrated 3rd year success by getting hitched. Likes Kay, sport and sleep (roughly in that order).

CAFFIN, DAVID

David was educated at Melbourne Grammar and then re-educated at M.U. Eng. School circa 1964. Despite his notoriously casual attitude to life, he has passed regularly. Hopes some day to find the perfect woman, but meantime, is rumoured to be in love with a second generation computer. Next year intends to build worlds first psychedelic aluminium quick-cat.

CHALMERS, ROGER

Arrived from England via New Zealand. He refuses to be naturalized but is hard to tell from a native Australian. Played rugby (successfully) but now only practises his tackling at balls (very successfully) so is often found on the floor. Also likes to swim in fountains. Ambition is to outdrink Janet. Has now taken to the hills with the hire purchase companies in hot pursuit. Wife Janet spends her time dragging off sprites and 186 Holdens in his Mini Deluxe.

CHOW, CHAP KIN

Born in Kuala Lumpur on 12/12/43. Arrived in Australia 1963, and came to M.U. via McLeod High School.

As president of the M.U. Malaysian Students' Assoc. he finds little time to pursue his favourite hobby—sleeping.

Likes: Taking naps on free afternoons, and dozing during lectures.

Dislikes: Snobs and drivers who get in his way.

Future: Judging by the way he drives—no future.

CLARKSON, RON

Emerg'd from Tigerland 19/1/45. Learnt how at Westgarth Central and Northcote High. On reaching final year Casanova Clarkson finally came to the end of the trail firmly held by a pair of forceps. After having come into contact with many motors, has finally discovered the perfect set of dentures.

Likes: Robyn, Marsala, F.B. station wagon, 6 spades.

Dislikes: Early Friday and Saturday nights, 7 spades.

CULLINAN, MURRAY

Sprang from beneath a shamrock in late '46 clutching a shilleleagh. Driven out from St. Pats, East Melbourne, for propagating the Irish revolution. Thwarted idealist, he has failed to convert certain engines to his high minded way of thinking. A footballer of note, C.R.B. cadet, and brilliant solver of problems in his spare time.

Ambition: To paint Red China green.

Probable Fate: Chief staff holder for the C.R.B.

Likes: An Irish peasant girl named Maureen, Irish folk songs, fried rice a la Maureen, repairing V.W.'s.

CUMMINS, PHIL

Con-rod wandered onto the campus in '64 from Xavier with a worried look and proceeded to invent a new and successful way of handling women. Likes running two women at once, and consequently strikes a line balance between mid-week and weak-end requirements.

Likes: Criticizing lecturers, computers, V.W.'s.

Dislikes: The army, all-night designs.

DAVIES, JOHN

1943—Discovered after microscopic examination between the notes on a sheet of Gilbert and Sullivan music.

1943-1960—Grew bigger, more handsome and less intelligent at De La Salle until he saw the Eng. School, liked it and stayed a while.

1960-1967 Flew through his course without attending a 9 o'clock lecture, and consequently spent most of his time copying lecture notes.

Likes: Amorous women. Gilbert & Sullivan.

EDWARDS, GARY

Discarded on a half back flank on 5/7/42 found nature study interesting at Burwood State & Box Hill High. Since arriving at M.U. he has furthered his studies around Healesville. He is still an eligible bachelor, so he thinks.

Likes: Heather, F.J. Holden, Koolmints, unbuilt subdivision at night time.

Dislikes: Bobby pins, people who ask stupid b..... questions in lectures.

EGAN, TERRY

Emerg'd from St. Bernards in 1963 and lost no time in making an impression on women he came up against. Displayed no particular talent apart from boozing, driving like a maniac, producing rude witticisms, passing exams, playing football, and exhausting Melbourne's supply of nurses.

DARROW, D.

Born in Sydney, 1945. Since his expulsion to Melbourne in 1964, has found difficulty in adjusting to the higher standard of living. Refuses to recognise Australian Rules.

Interests: Tennis, crazy on golf, waterskiing now and then, still pines for the Rugby days of old.

Probable Fate: Engineering the demolition of Sydney Harbour Bridge.

FITZGERALD, F.

Born 1946 on a surf-board in Half Moon Bay. Surrounded at Highett High, where he became distinguished as footballer and non-conforming prefect.

Spends all his spare time at the beach, especially, during exams.

Wants to make his home as a pioneering engineer in the wilds of New Guinea.

FRANKLIN, JOHN

Otherwise known as the Virginian, was washed up on the beach at Elwood soon after the war, and after learning about the finer points of life at C.B.C., St. Kilda, was shuttled off to Uni., where he was found to be useful at orgies and on hunting trips. Destined to carry S.C.I.I.A.E.S. flags into the rice paddies of Vietnam, he will be remembered as the noblest of all the bums.

Likes: Girlfriend, Virginia, long Sunday drives with Girlfriend.

Dislikes: Crowds, work, the five days between week-ends, relaxation.

FURPHY, CHARLES CLEMENS B.I.

Put down as part of war effort 17/9/43. Matured at M.G.S. for 13 years, and was finally uncorked at M.U. in 1962. Achieved notoriety as Choral Society President, and Producer of Eng. Revue 1966. Has failed twice, passed two years by faculty, and the other with a supp. Has drunk a million to rebuild the Alfred.

Interests: Beer, Cathy and beer, beer and Cathy, music and beer, beer and music, (and beer).

Ambition: Opera.

Probable Fate: To retire before graduating.

GALLAGHER, TED

12 years at Melbourne Grammar, followed by 4 years at Trinity.

Has been a great advocate of faculty pass system; wonders if Army is too—Ted will spend two years with them very soon.

Ever since 10/6/45 Ted has been playing first a rattle now a water polo ball and occasionally "hangs 5" with the best of them.

GILL, PETER J.

Discovered amongst bullrushes 7/3/46. Decided to while away 4 years at shop prior to becoming an estate agent. Enlightened C.B.C. (East Melbourne). Elected honorary patsy at beginning of 3rd year for all future misdeeds perpetrated by civil engineers.

Hobbies: Jan, gin and golf. Abstains from 1st fifteen minutes of all 9.00 a.m. lectures. (Cheats at cards).

GOAD, A. C.

Born a Blocko 1946.

Fond of his Fuzz.

In love with Louise, been on Carole.

Likes: his liquid.

Ambitions: Admirable.

Fate: Frustration.

GUTTRIDGE, BARRY ALAN

Argued his way out of a tight spot 11/9/43. Mastered the finer points of animal husbandry at Yea High, before migrating to Melbourne High. Entered M.U. on a blast of hot air in 1962 and passed 1st year. Discovered beer in 2nd year with a resultant retardation of academic progress. Has diet similar to a wombat.

HARDING, JEFF

Decided to see the convict settlement by himself in 1950. Education was completed at Coburg High where he finally managed to kick a football. Since then, in between Riley bonnets and seeing Marg, has reached the first stage in his second childhood. Interests range from Marg, to Marg and he hopes to pension off the Prime Minister when he reaches the top.

HISCOX, RODNEY ROBERT

Bearded, Blonde, Blue-eyed, Bludger. Often heard to utter obscene cries when rudely awakened in lectures. Little is known about his past other than he was born in 1856 and sometimes goes under the alias of "Scott". Rumours that he is also known as Rip Van Winckle are unproved as yet.

Likes: Beards, Birds, Booze, Bombs and Balls. Dislikes: Water, nine o'clock lectures, ten o'clock lectures, eleven o'clock lectures.....

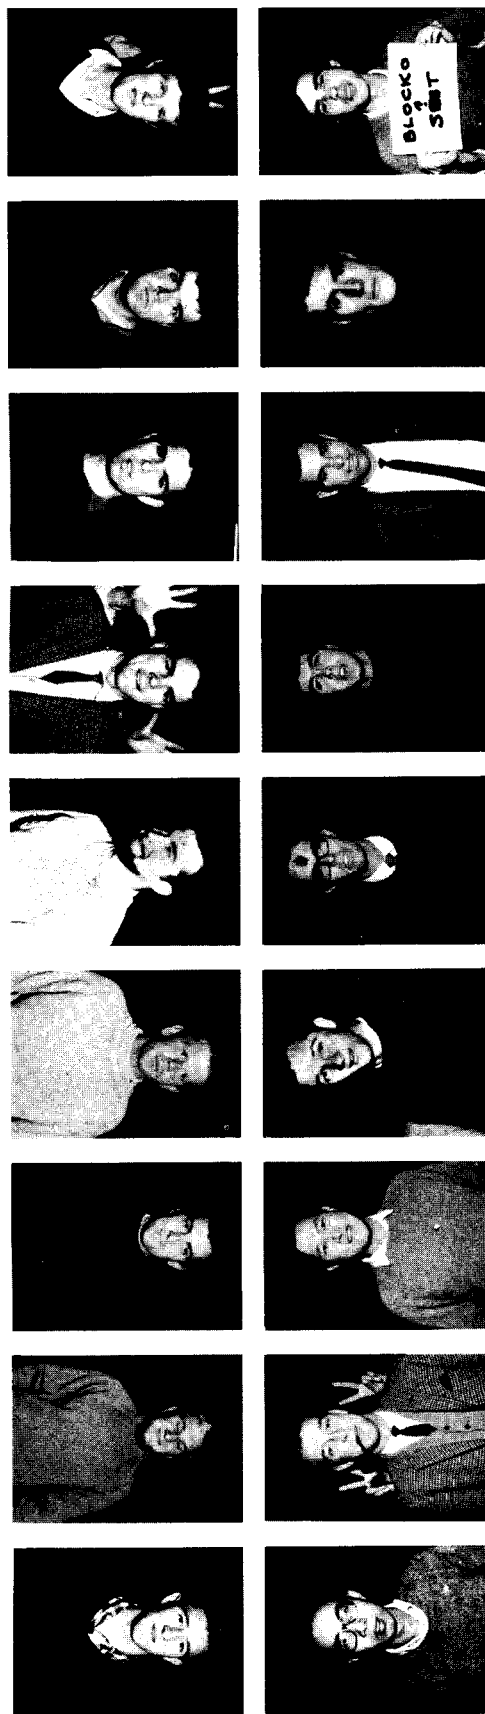

Ambition: To become a second Van Gogh.

Probable Fate: To become a street sweeper in Venice.

HOBSON, BRIAN

Born 15/8/67. By devious ways and means, Brian got the P.W.R. to subsidize his faculty-passes and marriage plans.

Likes: Cards till 4 a.m., sleeping through Nick's rambling monologues and finding the quickest and easiest way to do anything (particularly designs).

HOLLAND, ROBERT

An Essendon boy, Bob gained his education at Eessndon Tech. Came to Uni. as a blocko because he couldn't be bothered working. Main interests seem to lie in the Elwood area—he even got himself engaged this year. Other interests are following Melbourne and driving a clapped Mini.

Hates: Trams, norms.

Ambitions: Own a hot mini, destroy a tram. Probable Ending: Designing potholes with C.R.B.

HUTCHINGS, R.

Hatched near Bairnsdale as a result of a rampage by Roger the farm rooster. Banished from the area after topping Bairnsdale Tech. Then moved to R.M.I.T. Arrived at M.U. in 1966. Is the year's permanent incomprehensible question asker. Shattered the moral standing of Trinity in '67. Likes wine, women and work, (in that order).

IANNAZZO, ANGELO L.

Calabria 1943, a bambina sleeping in a spaghetti tree.

Wrapped in an abandoned white flag, shaved at three and crossed the sea

To chase, impress, caress, molest others loves with dark Latin passion

In the sprite, football, opera, tomato sauce, love and fashion

Unlegally existent, a carafe of beer, blonde hair near, and Thee.

IRWIN, JOHN

1945 Born Melbourne.

1947 Crawling around an outback pub.

1948 Youngest horse trainer in Australia.

Since then has been riding footballers' backs. Interests, being varied, range from catching footballs to catching birds, both on backs. Being ambitious, his ambitions are unlimited.

JAY, DAVID

Gave his first free kick in 1946. Worked his way up at Macleod High, and came to the Uni. covered in glory. Escaped conscription but sold himself to the Commonwealth in 1966. Likes: Jeff Crouch (secretly), Leslie, scraggy beards and Peugeot.

Ambition: To be like Jeff Crouch.

Probable Fate: Umpiring football at Port Moresby.

JOHNSTON, DENIS

Born 21/7/46 with baseball bat and balls in hand. He's one Den that doesn't sit still—Missed out on kinder and Sunday School—but hasn't missed education: spent eight years at Preston Tech. Now a blocko at Uni.

Wants to do research—we ask, research about what? Studies commenced on last night of Latrobe trip; many Moe maidens missed.

KHOO, H. C.

Khoo was exported to Australia in an all-out by his parents to improve Malaysia's trade balance for 1962. He attended a familiarization course at Melbourne High and entered the university in 1963.

Favourite pastime: Playing old Chinese card game with blocks.

Ambition: To incorporate Indonesia into Malaysia—success depends on Mr. and Mrs. Khoo's export action.

Achievements: Great ambassador for Malaysia.

KOUZMIN, ALEXANDER

Born in Bulgaria and crossed the Black Sea in a fishing boat. Goaled in Istanbul for spying. Arrived in Perth at the age of four, and commenced the cultural revolution which was highlighted by his formation of the D.L.P. in 1955. Distinguished himself at Uni High by becoming the first Russian-born captain of the lacrosse reserves. Looks assured of a four year degree even though he managed four faculties in the first two years. Drives a 186 Holden and hopes to begin a correspondence panel beaters' course soon.

LAM, THOMAS

This merry chap was made in Hong Kong. Swam across the ocean to see the Kangaroo. Educated at Brisbane State High, but got deported to the Shop.

Main Vices: Sleeping, and talking (in Chinese)

Hates: Early lectures.

Ambition: To be a capitalist and thus have four wives without being a Moslem.

LAWSON, ALAN

Precipitated on the Ganges delta where he was found by a passing British officer who was expelled to the Southern Colony. Retains his identification as an autocrat by owning a MK 1 Sprite, and a Honda 90-bike, but drives his mother's car. Often physically and always mentally in Adelaide—is he engaged to Libby? Married?

Ambition is to own a MK 2 Sprite, a Honda 125 and Lib.

Due to a Commonwealth Cadetship, he will probably end up rearing a large mixed family on the New Guinea Highlands.

LECHTE, PETER

Born in the gorilla's cage at the Lilydale Council Zoo in 1945. Expelled from Xavier for eating green bananas while climbing flagpoles. Achieved great heights with regard to women and football. Has frequently disturbed lectures with his raucous laughter.

After interrupting the peace at Newman for four years, he emerges with honours and the all-time record for sex abstinence: three days.

LIN, JOSEPH

Born Hong Kong (or so he tells us), 1945, infiltrated in Australia 1950. Naturalised a few years later. Speaks fluent Australian—if anyone talks in Chinese it's all Greek to him.

Ambition: To travel this world, squashing. Achievements: Escaped Nasho (thanks to Uncle Mao).

LOGAN, BRIAN

Born in the wilds of the Dandenongs in 1945. After 8 years of indoctrination as a "blocko" at Caulfield Tech., he saw the light, and came to M.U. to join the elite in '66.

He lost in "that ballot", so we may see him in jungle greens at any time.

Likes: Squash, and is also a stylish table tennis player.

MADDEN, K.

Shadowy type, rarely seen in daylight. Recently converted from Bulla star to Thredbo bunny. Thinks ore bins are indoor ski runs.

Ambition: Design prestressed concrete ski boots.

Probable Zate: Clearing Alpine Way

MARKS, ROBERT

First idiotic question asked in March 1946. After proving too difficult at home was exiled to Scotch College then to Ormond. Proved to be the most conscientious lecture copier in the year, and by a combination of this talent and dramatic, choral and other unspeakable activities has managed, to attract enough attention to carry away a swag of honours.

MCDONALD, PHIL

Found in a barnyard at Caramut about '45, and was adopted by a farmer. He thus developed a love for wide open spaces. Processed from an early age at Monivae College, Hamilton, he emigrated to Newman in a covered Falcon and displayed qualities with regard to football, passing exams, college riots and small game hunting.

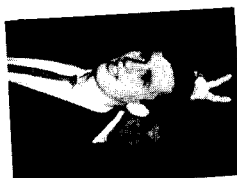

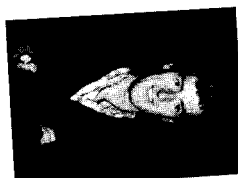

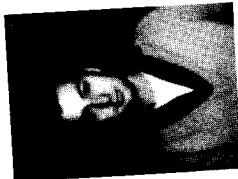

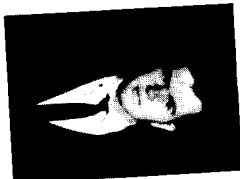

Likes: Beer, Falcons, sex and Robin, using the interaction equation.

McMECKAN, JIM

Coasted through Scotch College on the end of an oar after being found alive in '45. Besides rowing he absorbed enough to get to the shop in 1964, so that now he can row for Ormond College.

An exponent of the least work principle his time is divided between birds, boats, and arriving late for everything.

Probable Fate: Collecting barnacles for the Harbour Trust.

MIGIOS, GEORGE

Born, half Spartan, half Australian with inclining towards Bulgarian in Melbourne as an after-thought of the financial year 30/6/44.

Always has had a subtle interest in money, reason why he has none. Possesses itchy feet which have led him North and West with a detour to New Zealand. Unobtrusive character, showing little interest in lectures and even less in exams. Hopes to take his Sabbatical leave in New Guinea next year. Sometimes a backbone of Uni. High football, the main asset of Peugeot Finance and Vihra.

MOODIE, ANTHONY ROBERT

Illustrious beginning, Toorak 22/8/46. Inevitable decline at Lloyd St. Central, then sunk into oblivion, Melbourne High School 1960-63. Began his student political career in second year, and lost two MUESC election in a week: finally accepted in Bosch Society, Union Council and the S.R.C.

Likes: Morris 1000, sleeping in, Watsons on a sunny afternoon.

Dislikes: Pedestrians, noisy lefties.

Ambition: To paint a mural on the west wall of the New Civil Building.

Probable Fate: Painting the spaces between the white lines on the Hume Highway black.

MOSIG, PAUL

Born 23/8/43. Tried to learn about life at the following places, Princes Hill Kinder, Princes Hill State, Westgarth Central, Northcote High, Melbourne Uni. During the last 2 years of the seven he has spent at Melbourne, he went to St. Catherine's Girl's to do bird-watching and gardening.

Likes: An armoured A40, Poyntons Pub, waking up to find himself home.

Dislikes: Morning lectures, afternoon design sessions, Haricuts.

NEGRELLI, LORENZO A.

Discovered 1/3/46. Swiftly transported from the rolling hills of Italy to the rolling billiard balls in the expresso bars around Melbourne. Learnt to swear at C.B.C. (East Melbourne). Rumoured to be second on the Mafia list. Speaks few words of English. Wandered into University in '64 and has been trying to escape ever since.

NOONAN, JOHN J.

Punched 1946. Processed C.B.C. Purified. Arrived Uni. 1964 conceited, now he considers himself perfect. Believes walking is the perfect exercise (and cheaper). Discovered use for computer paper ("not bad but a bit rough"). Vices: Basketball (women's rules), football, computers.

Virtues: Pat or Ann.

OGDEN, KEN

Born a Sydneite, 4/7/45. Now blows whistles at big-men-flying every opportunity he can get. Runs a lily white luscious Holden Station wagon and is onto a pretty slick-chick-woman hails from Daylesford. Attended one of the two only combined Tech-Highs in the state at Daylesford and then Ballarat School of "Mens". Now resident of Trinity.

ONAS, JOHN

Comrade John was born Siberia, 1945 (5 year plan), deported to Australia to stay at the University and do a Medicine degree (if he could only stand the sight of blood).

Probable Fate: Deferment being cancelled and being shipped out to Vietnam.

ORCHARD, NEIL

Born in Surrey Hills (Vic.) in 1945. First learnt blockoism at Box Hill Tech., then advanced to the highest order of blockoism at R.M.I.T. before coming to M.U. He lost in "that ballot", and wonders whether his red hair will go well in khaki. Judo expert—and is "itching" to cause havoc among the V.C.

PEILE, DAVID

Born in 1945 by mistake. Parents wanted a sweet little girl—he came along instead. Educated in Bendigo High; trained in Bendigo Tech and became a blocko at M.U. in 1966. Football wise a keen supporter of "The Saints", otherwise a devil's disciple.

Likes: Good booze and bad women.

Ambition: To introduce Road Accidents as means of population control.

PROUDFOOT, LEIGH

Born as a result of nine month struggle at Glenroy High. Uni. 1964. Believed to be the sole person to write 12 pages in a lecture. Vices: Tennis, squash, studying, Patti. Virtues: Tall, dark and handsome. Ambition: To become a soil engineer. Fate: End up 6 ft. under.

RANKINE, IAN

Found at Ricketts Point 18/4/44. Terrorized Prahran Kiddiegarten, dormant at Haileybury College, erupted at Melbourne Uni. Was sometimes found flashing coded messages down to the Total building before lectures commence. He has now resorted to the normal method of the telephone. Likes: Ricketts Point with Chris on a dark night. Dislikes: Lectures interrupting sleep on Mondays. Future: Fulfilling bond with the Harbour Trust and impending marriage with Chris. (June 1968).

REES, GEOFF

Lost 1945, found at Caulfield Grammar. Can be seen astride his fiery steed, dazzling helmet atop. His talent at tennis has yet to be matched. Excels in hydraulic designs, explained by his extra-curricular researches into frothy fluids. Likes: Birds and motor scooters.

ROMULD, KRISTIAN BANT

Only son of a Norwegian woodchopper who was logged at Omeo 1/12/1945. Was splitting logs at 12 months, splitting skis at 15 and splitting hairs at 18. Came to the Faculty from Melbourne High in 1964 and now hopes to split the scene without a repeat year.

SEYLER, PETER

First described Munich, 1943, deported 1949 to Ripponlea State School, arrived (via Xavier) at the shop in 1962 to embark upon an Engineering course. Enjoyed the place so much that he becomes eligible for sabbatical leave in 1968. Likes: Caf. sitting, Watson's red, Dr. Briner and V.W.'s. Ultimate Fate: Adviser to Pierre Cardin or shear resistance in paisley ties.

SIAH, Y. L.

Discovered in a Malayan Swamp 24 years ago. After an adventurous career arrived at Ballarat School of Mines to be refined. Came to the shop with an ambition to be an Engineer. Allergic to lecture notes and prescribed texts. Blacks out at the sight of design and problem sheets. Destiny: To design a revolutionary new rickshaw.

SIMONSEN, ROBERT WILLIAM, B.I.

Born in a pineapple patch somewhere in Queensland 25/10/41. Educated at various mission schools in Queensland, Japan, and Victoria. Finally emancipated at Caulfield Grammar prior to entry into M.U. 1961. Bombed out on a motor scooter in 1961 in order to meet attractive Alfred nurse, to whom his is now married.

Likes: Lexie, grog, getting up early.

Dislikes: 4 Year Engineering courses.

Ambition: To have a large family.

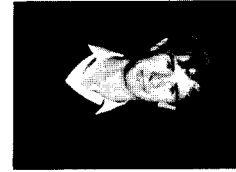

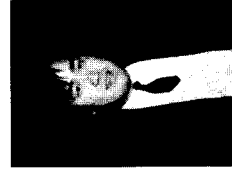

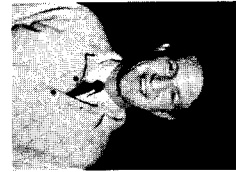

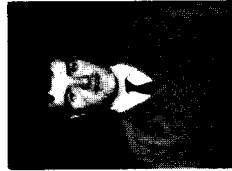

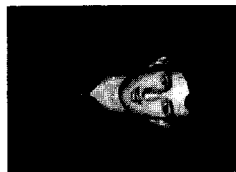

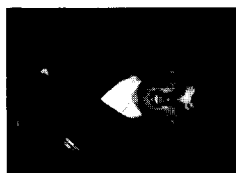

Probable Fate: To have an even larger one.

SMITH, ED

Ed quiet when sober, except for the sound of scraping feet, becomes philosophical after several beers and reveals a basic philosophy of "F..... All". Can also get excited about Ferriment. But when out intends to be a bum, write a book, and leave the country.

SMITH, J. C.

J. C. was born in the year O.B.C., reincarnated 1944. Psycho-therapy (A.P.S. style) provided relief from the "crown of thorns", producing today's veneer of Non-conforming conformism. Noted for his numerous discoveries of vaginal-phallic symbols. Likes: Water (on the outside), claret (on the inside), and wife (.....?).

SOPLY, BOB

Born 2/8/46. Arrived Uni, from St. Pat's 1964—Late and hasn't arrived early yet. Ambitions: are to keep a black Morris Minor spluttering and proving dominance of man over woman (Nola). Main Occupational Hazards are overwork, Univ. Blacks, reserve bench and bloody awful lecture notes.

TAN, ING HOO

A veteran overseas student in Australia. First appeared in the Malayan Jungles about thirty years ago. He is a small man with bounds of energy. At present, he is imprisoned, in Medley Hall and will be 'mad' soon. Claims to have a wife and two kids in Malaya. Probable Fate: Family reunion.

TAYLOR, JOHN "STAN"

Auspiciously began his career on June 30, 1946. Displayed early promise by constructing Hyperstatic structures out of building blocks but subsequently suffered a temporary setback until reaching Melbourne Uni. 1964. After much diligent research he discovered the female of the species in 1967 and has not looked back since.

VICKERS, ROBERT WILLIAM, BI

Conceived about February 1945, and entered Murrumbidgee State in 1951, where he terrorised the little girls until he was sent to Scotch College. He soon made up for this period of sexual inactivity when he entered M.U. in 1964. Likes: Minis, (but prefers Station Wagons), Adrianne and/or Carol, faculty passes, Football and tennis.

Ambition: To raise a blonde, blue-eyed master-race, all 4 ft. 6 in. tall.

Probable Fate: To be unable to raise one.

WALKER, PETER

First of the Walkers. Born 4/5/44. Educated at All Hallows Primary and Marcellin College. Drives conspicuous, battle scarred, "Turquoise Mist" Hillman.

Likes: Debbie, tennis, balls.

Dislikes: Drivers who don't give right of way, insurance companies.

Fate: Driving bright blue bulldozer for the C.R.B.

WHYTE, JASON, BI

Born 27/7/43 as result of honourable discharge. Posted to North Sydney Boys High and later transferred to Scotch College, Melbourne. Promoted to M.U. in 1962. Drives a blue Minor in which he frequently works up a heavy fog. Likes: Faculty passes, heaters in Morris Minors, Final year.

Dislikes: Long hair, muscular women, graduating.

Ambition: Doorman at Southern Cross.

Probable Fate: Doorman at Prince Alfred. (see C & N 1966).

WILKES, JOHN

Quiet worker from Northcote area. Birthday a mystery, but was educated for sure at Northcote High. John believes computers are old hat. "At least you don't have to prepare a slide rule" says John.

Hates: Business administration lectures.

Likes: Holdens, motor bikes and matches.

Probable Fate: Drilling holes in the end of broom handles or be nephew to the next Premier of Victoria, in which case he won't have to do any work.

WONG, C. Y. T.

Came from the Pearl of the orient, Hong Kong, to look for adventure in Australia in 1961. Did Matric. in University High, and appeared in the shop in 1963. Mucked around for the last few years and seemed to turn over a new leaf, recently. Found studying ferociously in the Ballieu with a bird by the name of Amy. Probable Fate: Xcommunicated from the Bachelor Club.

WOOTEN, R.

Born 1964 and bred on the sand belt where the Saints reign. After graduating from one of our famous primary social institutions for primary education he spent 8 further years quietly working away at Caulfield Tech. Many a time he flattened lecturers with remarks, especially in maths. Now triumphs as a Blocko. Unfortunately missed out on N.S.—instead took up basketball to challenge the U.S. Navy.
