

FOUR TRIGGERS: WHAT'S THE ISSUE?

1. Frank has phoned in sick. When Bob leaves the office to get some milk, he sees Frank in the shopping mall with a tennis racket. Frank does not see him.
2. Alice is at work early. You can tell, because the air around her desk is full of smoke. As she greets you she lights up another cigarette.
3. Margaret pulls up outside Franklins in a station wagon with a government logo on the side. Forty minutes later she emerges with a trolley full of groceries.
4. Maurice says he can't come to the company's social club trivia night. You ask him why. He whispers that a client has given him four seats for the rugby in their corporate box.
